Group Exercise

Group Discussion

- What kind of senior individual contributor does your organization need?
- What is expected of managers in your organization? What's the mix of skills needed?
- How does your organization make space for progression as a senior individual contributor?
- Do you have a dual or trident career model already? Do you need one? How would people "try-out" managing / leading expectations?